

Lesson 3, Twitter lists

Twitter lists

New! Lists. A great way to organize the people you follow and discover new and interesting accounts. (BETA)

Lists are timelines you build yourself, consisting of friends, family, co-workers, you name it.

Create a new list Close

Check out our Twitter Team list »

Twitter lists are just that – a nice way of keeping lists of interesting people and tweets and they can be set to private or public.

Create a new list ×

List name

List URL: twitter.com/Spibrarian/

Privacy  Public — Anyone can subscribe to this list.
 Private — Only you can access this list.

Create list

When you click: Create a new list, a new little window appears with a box to first name your list and the privacy settings. Click create list when you are finished naming your list. Then you can add people to that list by typing in a username, first or last name, business or brand name.

Following: 0 View list page »

 Find people to add to your list:

search

Search for a username, first or last name, business or brand.

You can also add people from your Following page or anyone's profile page.

ACLS Twitter list: <http://twitter.com/johntaube/acls-tweets>