

Lesson 4, Settings

A horizontal navigation bar with a light blue background and a thin blue border. It contains six links: Home, Profile, Find People, Settings, Help, and Sign out, all in a light blue font.

At the top right of the twitter homepage are links to your Profile, Find People, Help, etc. Under the Settings tab, you will find tabs for:

Account

From here you can change your basic account info, fill in your profile data, and set whether you want to be private or public.

Password

Be tricky! Your password should be at least 6 characters and not a dictionary word or common name. Change your password on occasion.

Devices - Twitter with SMS

Sending updates to Twitter while you're away from your computer makes things much more interesting.

Notices

These settings control how much Twitter bugs you about various things.

Picture

Your Twitter profile pic helps instantly identify you to those following you -- and tells those who aren't more about you. You can upload a picture from your computer files, CD, or, flashdrive.

Design

Customize the way Twitter looks for you and how your profile looks to others. Start with a pre-designed theme -- and then, optionally, customize it with your own color scheme and background image.
